JOHN DUROCHER

John DuRocher graduated in 1984 with a Bachelor's Degree from University of Illinois Chicago. He went on to serve in the United States Navy from 1984 to 1986 and was awarded a Naval Expeditionary Medal, Unit Commendation, & a Sea Service Ribbon. After being honorably discharged from the U.S. Navy, Mr. DuRocher went on to obtain a Master's Degree in Public Administration, with Local Government Management as his focus, from Northern Illinois University. Mr. DuRocher's start in government was in the early 80's as an intern with Burr Ridge. After Burr Ridge, he went on to serve as Administrator for the Village of Montgomery, City of Wilmington, and the Northwest Water Commission. In August of 2015, Mr. DuRocher was hired by Indian Head Park. Administrator DuRocher's view on running the Village is simple: "Transparency is key, Conducting the business in the community as evenly and cost efficiently as possible."
